Wow! How did I manage that?? Very, very nearly pulled out at Wray Castle, and was then planning on calling it a day at Grasmere. Still feeling a bit spaced out from not sleeping for 2 nights (except for 10 minutes at Glendridding). 39% finishers this year, slightly higher than previous years, possibly due to good weather (except for a Baltic wind on High Street, a gale on Sticks pass and the downpour on the final leg).
